

Projets de recherche:

Traduire en anglais et republier Le Voyage en Afrique par Le Vaillant (1790)

Le publier en français avec Tania Manca (PUPS)

Participations à des colloques:

Fréquent en Afrique du Sud.

Aussi: ICA, Bremen, 2006. 'Mapping South'

Publications:

2004: Francois Levaillant and the Birds of Africa. Co-author with Kees Rookmaaker, P. J. Mundy and E. Spary. Brenthurst Press, Johannesburg. 484 pp.

2005: "Francois Levaillant: Africa's Audubon?" Africa birds and birding, February/March, Vol 10, no 1, pp. 52-56.

2005: "The man who invented safaris." New Contrast 130, 33, 2, pp.64-70.

2006a: L. C. Rookmaaker, P.A. Morris, I.E. Glenn, P.J. Mundy, "The ornithological cabinet of Jean-Baptiste Bécœur and the secret of the arsenical soap." Archives of Natural History, 33:1 (April), pp. 146-58.

2006b: Ian Glenn, "Primate Time: Rousseau, Levaillant, Marais." Current Writing, 18 (1), pp. 61-77.

2007: Le Vaillant, François, Travels into the Interior of Africa via the Cape of Good Hope. Translated and edited by Ian Glenn with the assistance of Catherine Lauga Du Plessis and Ian Farlam, Cape Town, Van Riebeeck Society for the Publication of South African Historical Documents, 2007, Volume I, LXV-194 p., ill. [This is a new translation by Catherine Lauga-Du Plessis and myself with two introductory essays by me, with notes by Justice Ian Farlam.]